ABOUT

Dawn Myers

Founder | Speaker | Educator

Founder, professor, and Shark Tank alum backed by Mark Cuban and Emma Grede, Dawn Myers blends entrepreneurial grit with academic expertise. She teaches audiences how to pitch with power, fund bold visions, and build resilient companies. From launching a venture during chemotherapy to scaling into national recognition, Dawn inspires with both hard-won lessons and actionable strategies.

1. PITCH FOR PROFIT

*Win the Room.
Win the Capital.*

A high-energy, practical guide to crafting pitches that captivate investors, partners, and customers. Audiences walk away with proven frameworks to pitch with confidence and close with results.

2. RAISING CAPITAL

Funding Bold Visions in Any Economy.

Dawn shares hard-earned lessons on navigating venture funding, angel investment, and creative financing. This session gives emerging entrepreneurs, startup founders, and non-profit leaders a clear path to securing the money needed to bring big their ideas to life.

3. FROM IDEA TO IMPACT

Turn Your Innovation into a Market-Ready Success.

From napkin sketch to nationwide sales, Dawn breaks down the process of bring product ideas to life. Audiences learn step-by-step how to transform raw ideas into tangible solutions that customers and communities love.

4. FROM THE CANCER WARD TO ABC'S SHARK TANK

Resilience, Reinvention, and Entrepreneurial Grit.

A powerful personal story of building a company during chemotherapy and taking it all the way to Shark Tank. This keynote inspires audiences to see adversity as fuel for growth and leadership and provides an actionable framework for thriving through any obstacle.

"Disruption isn't about breaking things - it's about building something better, one bold choice at a time."
